

Charity Mentoring Network

Example Email to engage your corporate partners

Hello [Insert.Name],

The charity has just joined a brand new initiative which I think might be of interest to you... It's called the Charity Mentoring Network, and it connects charity workers and volunteers to share mentors, creating a continuous cycle of mentoring and personal development across the third sector. We're really excited about it!

This is where I think you could come in..

Corporate organisations are able to join too, by offering their people as mentors only - using their charity/volunteering days/CSR/ESG time to give back to the third sector via mentoring.

It's a great solution because it requires no time out of the office. Individuals may choose to offer as little as 1h/month for 6 months if time is a barrier. Not only that, your mentors themselves will reap all of the benefits of actually being a mentor, whilst helping develop a mentee who works in a charity.

Here are some of the organisations that are involved so far:

- Barnardo's
- Samaritans
- Sue Ryder
- Action Aid
- Plan International
- Shelter
- Amnesty International

To name a few.

The best way to learn more is to attend one of their upcoming virtual coffee mornings. You can sign up here: <https://charitymentoring.net/coffee-morning/>

Best wishes,
